Berlin vom Hochland during the live duck search at the Utah Solms

DKGNA testing will resumed on September 25th & 26th with our Solms/AZP/Zuchtschau in Cedar Fort, Utah. The test was a very successful event. Information and results are included in an article in this publication.

October 3rd a Solms/AZP/Zuchtschau in Walla Walla, WA on October 3rd; a

HZP/Solms/AZP/Zuchtschau on October 9th, 10th, & 11th Frisco City, AL; and Lillington, NC on November 7th & 8th for a Solms/AZP/Zuchtschau. Click here to view the DKGNA Testing Schedule. There are Training Days available for most of the tests. Please contact the Test Coordinators for scheduled times.

As is the case with everything else the tests this year will be subject to local Covid-19 restrictions. There will be no spectators allowed at the tests and each handler will be required to sign a release form. Hopefully we can be back to normal sometime soon.

The breeding season has started and we encourage everyone to watch the litter page on the DKGNA web page for upcoming litters. To view the litter page <https://dkgna.org/dogs/litters/>.

Nominations for the DKGNA Board of Directors positions of Vice-President and Secretary are now open. Please read the notice in the newsletter.

Ticket sales for the DKGNA Raffle remain steady. We have approximately twenty tickets left to sell and we can have the drawings. If you have not sold or purchased your tickets please do so now. Click here to see the flyer and purchase a ticket via PayPal.

We look forward to seeing many of you at the Fall Tests. Also, hunting seasons have started in many places or will start shortly. We wish everyone a safe and enjoyable hunting season.
