

2020 DKGNA Raffle

The three lucky winners of the DKGNA Annual Raffle have been drawn and they come from Gothenburg, NE and Boise, ID. Congratulations to the winners of the DKGNA Annual Raffle.

There were three winners, with the first person drawn having their choice of the three prizes. The second person had their choice of the remaining two prizes.

Randy Isackson from Gothenburg, NE is the winner of the “Hunt Oregon Upland Bird Hunt.” Hunt Oregon, LLC, has graciously donated the upland bird hunt for four people, for three days, and four nights. All meals are included and there is a hosted open bar. When contact and told that he was the winner of the trip Randy remarked, “I’m excited for this experience and to be able to share this once in a lifetime experience with friends. I want to thank the DKGNA and Hunt Oregon for making this experience possible.

John Kreuzer, also from Gothenburg, NE, is the winner of the Beretta 686 Silver Pigeon 1, 20/28 ga. 2 Barrel Set. Mark reaction was great when informed of his good fortune, “Double excitement. I sold the winning ticket to Randy and won the Beretta two barrel set over and under for myself!”

Winning the Alger Flats Outfitters Quail, Wild Boar, and Whitetail Deer hunt is Preston Seay, from Boise, ID. The hunt is for two persons, for two days, and three nights. Lodging and meals are included. The hunt will take place in Perdue, AL. After choosing the Alger Flat Outfitters Quail and Wild

Boar hunt Preston remarked, “Wow! We couldn’t be more excited about winning this trip! I’ve never been to Alabama or hunted hogs, this is a dream come true! I’ll be taking along my wife, who is new to hunting and she is ecstatic. It’s always great to get away without the kids and we are so thankful to the DKGNA for hosting this raffle and to Alger Flats Outfitters for donating the trip. What a great 2020 surprise. Thanks again.”
