

2021 DKGNA Annual Meeting

After having to cancel the 2020 DKGNA Annual Meeting due to Covid-19 restrictions our first annual meeting will be held at the Home2 Suites, in Lehi, UT, on September 23rd – 26th. The Annual Meeting Committee has been hard at work planning the event and has developed a schedule of events that includes something for everyone.

Thursday, September 23rd, activities will get under way with attendee check-in and a Meet and Greet at the hotel.

Friday, September 24th, the DKGNA will be hosting a Solms/AZP at Muddy Roads Outfitters, in Benson, UT. Registration for the Solms/AZP/Zuchtschau is open and inquiries should be made to Josh Morris, 982 S 225 E, Salem, UT 84653, 801-472-8009, joshmo32@hotmail.com. That evening there will be a Social Hour and Dinner where the test scores will be announced.

Saturday, September 25th, the DKGNA Annual Meeting will be the first activity of the day followed by Seminars and a Zuchtschau. That evening we will have a Social Hour, Banquet, and Silent and Live auctions.

All members are encouraged to procure items that can be used either in the Silent or Live auction. Remember, no item is too big or too small. The smaller items will be grouped and used as part of the Silent Auction.

Sunday, September 26th, there will be Continuing Education for JGHV Judges and a Clay Shoot, at Wasatch Wing and Clay, 8002 N 16800 W, Cedar Fort, UT 84013. The Clay Shoot will be open to all members.

A detailed Schedule of Activities and Registration Information will be disseminated later this month. Due to the nature of the event it will be necessary for all members attending to pre-register and commit to purchase of the meals in advance. Please block out the dates for the event and look for additional information.
