

2021 DKGNA Raffle WINNERS!!!!

The 2021 DKGNA Raffle was sold out by September 10th and we were able to draw the winners at the DKGNA Annual Meeting Banquet, on September 25th. The winning tickets were drawn by John and Arlene Heiner in front of the banquet crowd of forty-eight onlookers.

The Annual Raffle is a opportunity to help ourselves and benefit the educational efforts of the Deutsch-Kurzhaar Group North America (DKGNA), a 501(c)(3) non-profit. The group's annual raffle prizes are phenomenal.

Winning the Hunt Oregon Upland Hunt was Kayla Heintzman, from Walla Walla, WA. When contacted and told that she could pick her prize Kayla didn't hesitate and said that she wanted the Hunt Oregon Upland Hunt. The Hunt Oregon trip is for four hunters for three days and four nights. All meals and lodging for the hunt are included and there is a daily hosted open bar. Hunts take place on the Cunningham Sheep Company ranch, famous for its upland bird habitat and wild bird numbers. This is one of the oldest family-owned ranches in Oregon and has only been hunted by the family and their friends until recently. The trip includes transportation to and from the Pasco, WA, airport and bird processing is included.

Michael Kyle Floyd, from Macon, GA, was the winner of the the Berretta 686 Silver Pigeon over/under shotgun is a two-barrel set – 20/28 gauges, the perfect gun for an upland bird hunter.

Winning the Alger Flats Outfitter hunt is for two hunters for two days and three nights was Patrice Kortuem from Littleton, CO. The hunt includes the opportunity for wild boar, whitetail deer, and quail. Lodging and meals are included.

The DKGNA Board of Directors wants to thank everyone who purchased a raffle ticket for your participation. We look forward to starting our 2022 Raffle in March and hope you will participate again.

Congratulations to the Winners!!!!
