

DKGNA Derby/Zuchtschau

Fort Cedar, UT

April 26th & 27th

The DKGNA conduct its first test with a very successful Derby and Zuchtschau in Fort Cedar, UT, on April 26th and 27th. The test was held at Wasatch Wing and Clay. The Judging team consisted of Jeff Martin (Test Director) from Penticton, BC, Canada, Mark Peasley of San Carlos, CA, and Jeff Lowe from Wellsville, UT. Tyler Smith was the Test Coordinator for the event. The grounds were excellent for a Derby and the game was plentiful.

In the Derby, on Friday, April 26th, seven dogs. Six of the dogs received Prize 1 and one a Prize 3. The highlight of the day was provided by Andra vom Barlarger Forst, lead by Brand Tatton. Andra received 4h's for Nose and Pointing.

That evening there was a social dinner at Café Rio, in Saratoga Springs.

Saturday, April 27th, there was a Derby and Zuchtschau. In the Derby there were eight dogs. Five dogs received Prize 1, two dogs received a Prize 2, and one dog a Prize 3. The gallery had the pleasure of watching to junior leaders be success receiving Prize 1 for their dogs. Sixteen year old Jeffery Conger lead Basil vom Hochland to a Prize one. Malia Jacob, twelve years old, lead Catja von der Niederheid to a Prize 1.

In the Zuchtschau Saturday afternoon there were a total of fourteen dogs. Each of the Junior male and females received a SG rating (SG is all a Junior can receive). In the Rüde (male) Class Bodin vom Hochland was the SG1Rüde and Bronco vom Hochland SG2. In the Hündin (female) Class Braya vom Hochland was the SG1 Hündin, Bee vom Hochland SG2, Catja von der Niederheide SG3, Basil vom Hochland SG4, and Chloe von den Sieben Söhnen SG5.

Spezialzuchtrichter Jeff Martin evaluated the dogs in both classes.
